1 Introduction

1.1 Name

The name of this clinical commissioning group is NHS Barnsley Clinical Commissioning Group (“the CCG”).

1.2 Statutory Framework

1.2.1 CCGs are established under the NHS Act 2006 (“the 2006 Act”), as amended by the Health and Social Care Act 2012. The CCG is a statutory body with the function of commissioning health services in England and is treated as an NHS body for the purposes of the 2006 Act. The powers and duties of the CCG to commission certain health services are set out in sections 3 and 3A of the 2006 Act. These provisions are supplemented by other statutory powers and duties that apply to CCGs, as well as by regulations and directions (including, but not limited to, those issued under the 2006 Act).

1.2.2 When exercising its commissioning role, the CCG must act in a way that is consistent with its statutory functions. Many of these statutory functions are set out in the 2006 Act but there are also other specific pieces of legislation that apply to CCGs, including the Equality Act 2010 and the Children Acts. Some of the statutory functions that apply to CCGs take the form of statutory duties, which the CCG must comply with when exercising its functions. These duties include things like:

- a) Acting in a way that promotes the NHS Constitution (section 14P of the 2006 Act);
- b) Exercising its functions effectively, efficiently and economically (section 14Q of the 2006 Act);
- c) Financial duties (under sections 223G-K of the 2006 Act);
- d) Child safeguarding (under the Children Acts 2004, 1989);
- e) Equality, including the public-sector equality duty (under the Equality Act 2010); and
- f) Information law, (for instance under data protection laws, such as the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679, and the Freedom of Information Act 2000).

1.2.3 Our status as a CCG is determined by NHS England. All CCGs are required to have a constitution and to publish it.

1.2.4 The CCG is subject to an annual assessment of its performance by NHS England which has powers to provide support or to intervene where it is satisfied that a CCG is failing, or has failed, to discharge any of our functions or that there is a significant risk that it will fail to do so.

1.2.5 CCGs are clinically-led membership organisations made up of general practices. The Members of the CCG are responsible for determining the governing arrangements for the CCG, including arrangements for clinical leadership, which are set out in this Constitution.

1.3 Status of this Constitution

1.3.1 This CCG was first authorised on 1 April 2013, initially with 16 conditions then from September 2013 NHS England confirmed all outstanding conditions for authorisation had been met.

1.3.2 Changes to this constitution are effective from the date of approval by NHS England.

1.3.3 The constitution is published on the CCG website at <http://www.barnsleyccg.nhs.uk/about-us/> .

1.4 Amendment and Variation of this Constitution

1.4.1 This constitution can only be varied in two circumstances.

- a) where the CCG applies to NHS England and that application is granted; and
- b) where in the circumstances set out in legislation NHS England varies the constitution other than on application by the CCG.

1.4.2 The Accountable Officer may periodically propose amendments to the constitution which shall be presented to the Governing Body for approval. Any such amendments will not require approval by the Membership Council unless:

- the changes are thought to have a material impact, or
- at least half of the Governing Body (representing a quorum as set out in standing orders) formally request that the amendments be put before the membership for approval.

1.4.3 Changes considered to have a material impact will require approval by the Membership Council. These include, but are not limited to:

- Changes to the reserved powers of members
- Changes to the composition of the Governing Body
- Proposals for merger with one or more other CCG(s)

1.5 Related documents

1.5.1 This Constitution is also informed by a number of documents which provide further details on how the CCG will operate. With the exception of the Standing Orders and the Standing Financial Instructions, these documents do not form part of the Constitution for the purposes of 1.4 above. They are the CCG's:
